Terms and conditions:

I confirm that I am entering the Miss Matangi 2017 Pageant of my own free will. I understand that the nature of this pageant means I will be expected to dress in women's clothing and may be required to bare more of my body than would normally be acceptable.

I accept that some of the humour on the night may be raucous, racy or downright rude, and will endeavour to entertain with my own brand of bawdiness as required.

I also understand that images from this show may be shared via the Matangi School Facebook Page – but only the flattering ones!

I also hereby declare that I am only doing this for the kids at Matangi School, and that competing in "Miss Matangi" is in the spirit of fun!
